

Mother Nature lives here.

Along with a major tech-savvy workforce.

You may know Utah for its spectacular outdoor living. But it's also home to one of the most wired, best educated workforces in the nation. Perhaps that's why three major research universities and thousands of technology companies thrive here. Making Utah one of the hottest destinations for business. Surprised? You don't know the half of it. For all the details, visit: utah.gov/tech
